Birmingham, Mich.---September 10, 2024 – Full-service business law firm Williams Williams Rattner & Plunkett \(WWRP\) is pleased to announce that partner Donna Marie Medina has been recognized by Leading Lawyers in 2024. Drawing on her more than 25 years of civil litigation experience, Medina concentrates her practice on domestic relations law. Accordingly, Leading Lawyers has recognized her in three categories: Adoption/Reproductive Technology Law, Family Law, and ADR: Family.

Representing both men and women in divorce and complex family disputes, Medina helps clients resolve matters involving child custody, parenting time, child support, alimony and spousal support, property settlement, division of assets, change of domicile, and change of school district. She also advises on family planning, private adoptions, and guardianships—appearing in court on behalf of parents and children when conflicts arise. She is one of only a few attorneys in Michigan who has extensive experience in contested direct placement adoptions, and she has represented many adoptive families and birth mothers in their efforts to terminate the parental rights of putative fathers under the adoption code.

Michigan’s 2024 Leading Lawyers are highlighted in a special advertising section, “Top Lawyers Michigan,” in DBusiness magazine’s September issue—Detroit 500 Most Powerful Leaders. This signature resource comprises a comprehensive list of the most powerful executives in more than 30 industries across metro Detroit and Michigan.

About Leading Lawyers

Leading Lawyers, a division of the Law Bulletin Media, surveys thousands of attorneys statewide to identify lawyers most often recommended by their peers. Lawyers cannot nominate themselves or anyone at their own law firm, nor buy this distinction. Fewer than 5% of all lawyers licensed to practice law in a given state can be named a Leading Lawyer.
